

PRAYER & FASTING PRAYER POINTS – WEEK 3

OUR NATION, ITS LEADERS & INSTITUTIONS

Government, Parliament and Institutions (Monday, Tuesday)

- For wisdom and creative leadership for the Prime Minister and all the party leaders
- For humility and guidance for all MPs as they represent their constituencies
- For the path forward that best serves the advancement of God's Kingdom in our country
- For our local councillors, that they will represent us with wisdom, boldness and integrity.
- For churches to engage with the new opportunities to be salt and light in the community planning process

The economy, national finances, infrastructure (Wednesday, Thursday)

- For wisdom and clarity for our leaders as the impact of Brexit takes hold
- For equitable fiscal management of our government, that they would seek the best use of funds as good stewards of God's provision
- For regulators – the financial conduct authority and the prudential regulation authority – that they and the Bank of England together may work with integrity to see God's Kingdom come.
- For those on the frontline of DWP, HMRC and National Insurance team – for good training in their public-facing duties

Business and commerce (Saturday)

- Creativity, clarity, wisdom and foresight for business leaders
- For resilience for business owners
- Right doing by leaders for workers
- For large and small businesses to find ideas and strategies
- For new markets to open up

NHS, emergency services, police (Sunday)

- For the leaders in the NHS as they make difficult decisions
- For doctors, nurses, paramedics, therapists, cleaners, 111 and support staff
- For continued good health and protection over them
- For the vital and emergency services in our nation as they serve - police officers, firefighters, the army and RAF, for wisdom and
- For justice, truth and right doing within in these institutions

Suggested reading: Our Daily Bread or Word for Today